

THE 12th CELEBRATION and 1st CANNES(not) FILM FESTIVAL

(sung to the theme of the Beverly Hillbillies)

Come and listen to my story 'bout the clan named Briggs
A family of four with an orchard to cook pigs
Then one day they was sippin' at some booze
'n up from their brains come a bubblin' ooze
-- Party that is -- Fourth of July -- 'Merica's birthday

Well the first thing ya know
The party grew from year to year
Friends and guests y'all came from far and near
They made a funny flag and a T-shirt sorta queer
For the Wreck Director who steers us to the beer
-- Party Animal that is -- megaphone cup -- penalty shots

Now everyone who came prob'ly had too much fun
Early birds arrived 'fore events had begun
The party it would last for three or four big days
'Cause they planned an agenda that was sorta like a maze
--over the line --butt painting --untalent (farting judges)

Well the next thing you know, it had been 20 years
An' the kinfolk's said "we need y'all up here
Northern Cal-if-ornee is the place you ought to be"
So they loaded up the truck and they moved to Willow--ee
-- Crick that is -- swim in pools -- chainsaw chicks -- Slippery Dicks

So now you've heard our story 'bout a clan named Briggs
Up in Willow Crick with a new set of digs
If ya wanna come visit, better bring yer campin' gear
An' come to Willow Crick for a legendary year
-- Party that is -- extra beer -- Tequila we mean -- Fourth of July -- America's Birthday...
